JOHNSTON'S SURRENDER.

The Official Record of the Correspondence Between Sherman and Johnston.

JOHNSTON'S OFFERS.

Headquarters in the Field, April 14, 1865.—To Gen. W. T. Sherman, Commanding United States Forces.—General: The results of the recent campaign in Virginia have changed the relative military condition of the belligerents. I am therefore induced to address you in this form, the inquiry whether, in order to stop the further effusion of blood and devastation of property, you are willing to make a temporary suspension of active operations, and to communicate to Lieut. Gen. Grant, commanding the armies of the United States, the request that he will take like action in regard to other armies, the object being to permit the civil authorities to enter into the needed arrangements to terminate the existing war.

I have the honor to be respectfully, your obedient servant, J. E. JOHNSTON, General.

SHERMAN OFFERS GRANT'S TERMS TO LEE.

Headquarters, Mil. Div. of the Miss., in the Field, Raleigh, N. C., April 14, 1865.—To Gen. J. E. Johnston, Commanding Confederate Army.—General: I have this moment received your communication of this date. I am fully empowered to arrange with you any terms for the suspension of further hostilities between the armies commanded by you and those commanded by myself, and will be willing to confer with you to that end. I will limit the advance of my main column to-morrow to Morrisville, and the cavalry to the University, and expect that you will maintain the present position of your forces until each has a notice of a failure to agree.

That a basis of action may be had, I undertake to abide by the same terms and conditions as were made by Generals Grant and Lee at Appomattox Court House, and furthermore to obtain from Gen. Grant an order to suspend the movements of our troops from the direction of Virginia. Gen. Stoneman is under my command, and my order will suspend any devastation or destruction contemplated by him. I will add that I really desire to save the people of North Carolina the damage they would sustain in the march of this army through the central or western parts of the State.

I am, with respect, your obedient servant, W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen.

SHERMAN IS APPREHENSIVE OF WILSON.

Headquarters, Mil. Div. of the Miss., in the Field, Raleigh, N. C., April 20, 1865.—To Gen. J. E. Johnston, Greensboro.—General: At your request I send you by Major Saunders, several written and printed copies of an order I have made to this army, which announces the cessation of hostilities, etc. I dispatched a steamer from Morehead City yesterday for Charleston, with orders to Gen. Gilmore to cease all acts of destruction, public or private, and to draw Gens. Hays and Porter back to the frontier. Also by 11:30 a. m. yesterday, Major Hitchcock was on a steamer bound for Morehead City, carrying a request to Gen. Meade to check the movement of his army on Danville and Weldon, so I hope your people will be spared in the Carolinas; but I am apprehensive of Wilson, who is impetuous and rapid. If you will send by telegraph and courier a similar word, he will stop and then the enclosed order will place his command at a point convenient to our supplies.

I send you a late paper, showing that in Virginia the State authorities are acknowledged and invited to resume their lawful functions. Yours, with respect, W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen.

WADE HAMPTON APPEARS.

Durham's Station, April 10, 1865.—Maj. Gen. Sherman.—The following dispatch has just been received from Lieut. Gen. Wade Hampton: J. KILPATRICK, Bvt. Maj. Gen.—General: The commanding officer directs me to arrange for a meeting between himself and Maj. Gen. Sherman. In accordance with these instructions, I beg to inquire when and where this meeting can most conveniently be had. I suggest 10 o'clock, a. m., tomorrow, at the hour, and a point on the Hillsboro road, equidistant from the picket of your command and my own, as the place for the proposed meeting.

I am, respectfully, yours, NEED WADE HAMPTON, Lieut. Gen.

JOHNSTON WANTS A GENERAL SUSPENSION.

Greensboro, April 13, 1865.—Maj. Gen. W. T. Sherman.—The following dispatch has just been received from Lieut. Gen. Johnston: As your troops are moving from the coast toward the interior of South Carolina, and from Columbus toward Macon, Ga., I respectfully suggest that you send copies of your orders announcing the suspension of hostilities for transmission to them, supposing the interior route to be shortest.

Most respectfully your ob't servant, J. E. JOHNSTON, Gen. C. S. A.

WILSON REPORTS THE FALL OF MACON.

Headquarters Cav. Corps, M. D. M., Macon, Ga., April 20 1865.—Maj. Gen. W. T. Sherman.—Through headquarters of Gen. Beauregard: My advance received the surrender of this city with its garrison this evening. Gen. Cobb had previously sent me, under flag of truce, a copy of a telegram from Beauregard, declaring the existence of an armistice between all troops under his command and those under mine. Without questioning the authenticity of this dispatch, or its application to my command, I could not communicate or dare to my advance in time to prevent the capture of the place. I shall therefore hold its garrison, including Maj. Gens. G. W. Smith and Cobb, and Brig. Gen. McCall, prisoners of war a reasonable length of time to hear from you.

J. H. WILSON, Brevet Maj. Gen.

WILSON'S CAREER CHECKED.

Headquarters Army of Tennessee, April 21, 1865.—9:30 a. m.—Maj. Gen. W. T. Sherman, care Lieut. Gen. Hampton, via Hillsboro.—I transmit a dispatch just received by telegraph from Maj. Gen. Wilson, United States Army. Should you desire to give the orders asked for in the same manner, I beg you to send them to me through Lieut. Gen. Hampton's office. I hope that, for the sake of expedition, you will be willing to take this course. I also send, for your information, a copy of a dispatch received from Maj. Gen. Cobb.

[Official.] H. B. McCLELLAN, A. G.

Headquarters Military Division of the Miss., in the field, Raleigh, N. C. April 21, 1865.—Gen. J. E. Johnston, Commanding Confederate Army.—General: I send you a letter from Gen. Wilson, which I sent by telegraph and courier, which I dipk his career. He may mistrust the telegraph, therefore, better send the original, for he cannot mistake my handwriting, with which he is familiar. He seems to have his blood up, and will be hard to hold. If he can buy corn, fodder, and ration down about Fort Valley, it will obviate the necessity of his going up to Rome or Dalton.

It is reported to me from Cairo that Mobile is in our possession, but it is not minute or official.

Gen. Baker sent to me, wanting to surrender his command, on the theory that the whole Confederate army was surrendered. I explained to him, or his staff officer, the exact truth, and left him to act as he thought proper. He seems to have disbanded his men, deposited a few arms about twenty miles from here, and himself awaits your action. I will not hold him, his men or arms, subject to any condition other than the final one we may agree on.

I shall look for Maj. Hitchcock back from Washington on Wednesday, and shall promptly notify you of the result. But from the action of Gen. Weitzel in relation to the Virginia Legislature, I feel certain we will have no trouble in recognizing existing State Governments. It may be the lawyers will want us to define more minutely what is meant by the guarantee of the rights of persons and property. It may be construed into a compact for us to undo the past as to the rights of slaves and "leases of plantations" on the Mississippi, of "vacant and abandoned" plantations. I wish you would talk to the best men you have on these points; and, if possible, let us in our final convention make these points so clear as to leave no room for angry controversy.

I believe, if the South would simply and publicly declare what we all feel, that slavery is dead, that you would inaugurate an era of peace and prosperity that would soon efface the ravages of the past four years of war. Negroes would remain in the South, and afford you abundance of cheap labor, which otherwise will be driven away; and it will save the country senseless discussions which have kept us all in hot water for fifty years.

Although, strictly speaking, this is no subject of a military convention, yet I am honestly convinced that no simple declaration of a result will be accepted as good law everywhere. Of course I have not a single word from Washington on this or any other point of our agreement, but I know the effect of such a step by us will be universally accepted.

I am, with great respect, your obedient servant, W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen. U. S. A.

THE CAPTURED GENERALS TO BE RELEASED.

Headquarters, Mil. Div. of the Mississippi, in the Field, Raleigh, N. C., April 21, 1865.—To Gen. J. E. Johnston, Commanding Confederate Army.—General: A suspension of hostilities was agreed on between Gen. Johnston and myself on Tuesday, April 18, at 12 noon. I want that agreement religiously observed and you may release the Generals captured at Macon. Occupy ground convenient, and contract for supplies for your command, and forbear any act of hostility until you hear or have reason to believe hostilities are resumed. In the meantime it is also agreed that the position of the enemy must not be altered to our prejudice.

You know by this time that Gen. Lee has surrendered to Gen. Grant the rebel army of Northern Virginia, and that I only await the sanction of the President to conclude terms of peace co-extensive with the boundaries of the United States. You will share your conduct on this knowledge, unless you have overwhelming proof to the contrary.

Major General Com'd'g.

AFTER THE ABOVE IS TELEGRAPHED, THIS ORIGINAL SHOULD BE SENT TO GEN. WILSON AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE.

W. T. SHERMAN, Major General.

WILSON WANTS ORDERS.

Headquarters Army of Tennessee, April 21, 1865.—9:30 a. m.—To Lieut. Gen. Hampton.—Transmit to Gen. Sherman the following dispatch, dated Headquarters Cavalry Corps, Military Division of the West, Macon, Georgia, April 20, 1865. J. E. JOHNSTON, Gen. C. S. A. [Official.] H. B. McCLELLAN, A. G. To Maj. Gen. W. T. Sherman, through Headquarters of Gen. Beauregard: My advance received the surrender of this city with its garrison this evening. Gen. Cobb had previously sent me, under flag of truce, a copy of a telegram from Beauregard, declaring the existence of an armistice between all the forces under your command and those of Gen. Johnston. Without questioning the authority of this dispatch, or its application to my command, I could not communicate orders in time to prevent the capture. I shall therefore hold the garrison, including Maj. Gens. Cobb and G. W. Smith, and Brig. Gen. McCall, prisoners of war.

Please send me orders. I shall remain here a reasonable length of time to hear from you.

J. H. WILSON, Bvt. Maj. Gen. U. S. A.

WILSON RECEIVES THE DISPATCH.

Headquarters Cavalry Corps, Military Division of the Miss., Macon, Ga., April 21, 1865.—Major General W. T. Sherman, through General Johnston: Your dispatch of yesterday is received. I shall at once proceed to carry out your instructions. If proper arrangements can be made to have sugar, coffee and clothing sent from Savannah to Augusta, they can be brought thither by way of Atlanta by railroad, or they can be sent by boat directly to this place from Darien. I shall be able to get baggage, bread and meat from Southwestern Georgia. The railroad from Atlanta to Dalton or Cleveland cannot be repaired in three months. I have arranged to send an officer at once, via Kalamazoo. General Cobb will also notify General Taylor of the armistice. I have about three thousand prisoners of war, including Generals Cobb, Smith, McCall, Mercer, and Robertson. Can you arrange with General Johnston for their immediate release? Please answer at once. I shall start a staff officer to you to-morrow.

J. H. WILSON, Bvt. Maj. Gen. Com'd'g.

FROM CUBT TO JOHNSTON.

Headquarters Army of the Tennessee, April 21, 1865.—9:30 a. m.—To Lieut. Gen. Hampton.—Transmit to Gen. Sherman the following dispatch, dated Macon, Georgia, April 20.

J. E. JOHNSTON, Gen.

[Official.] H. B. McCLELLAN, A. G.

To Gen. G. T. Beauregard: On receipt of your dispatch at 11 o'clock to-day, I sent a flag of truce to Gen. Wilson, with copy of the same, and informed him that I had issued orders to carry out the armistice, and desisted from military operations. The flag met the advance fourteen miles from the city. Before hearing of the advance moved on the city, and having moved my pickets, were in the city before I was aware of their approach. An unconditional surrender was demanded, to which I was forced to submit, under protest. Gen. Wilson has since arrived, and holds the city and garrison as captured, notwithstanding my protest. He informs me that he will remain in his present position a reasonable length of time to hear from his dispatch to Gen. Sherman, sent to your care.

HOWELL COBB, Maj. Gen.

AN ALTERATION WANTED BY JOHNSTON.

Headquarters Army of Tennessee, April 22, 1865.—2:30 p. m.—Maj. Gen. W. T. Sherman, Commanding U. S. Forces, Raleigh, N. C.—Your telegram to Bvt. Maj. Gen. Wilson is just received. I respectfully suggest that the sentence: "In the meantime it is also agreed that the position of the enemy's forces must not be altered to our prejudice," be so modified as to read: "In the meantime it is also agreed that the position of the forces of neither belligerent shall be altered to the prejudice of the other, and that this principle you direct Maj. Gen. Wilson to withdraw from Macon and release his garrison."

J. E. JOHNSTON, Gen. C. S. A. G.

GEN. SHERMAN CAN COMPLY.

Headquarters, Mil. Div. of the Mississippi, in the field, Raleigh, April 23, 1865.—To Gen. J. E. Johnston, Commanding Confederate Army, Greensboro.—General: Your communication of 2:20 p. m., of yesterday is received. My line of communication with Gen. Wilson is not secure enough for me to confuse him by a change in mere words. Of course the status quo is mutual; but I leave him to apply it to his case according to his surroundings. I would not instruct him to undo all done by him between the actual date of our agreement and the knowledge reached him. I beg, therefore, to leave him free to apply the rule to his own case. Indeed, I have almost exceeded the bounds of prudence in checking him without the means of direct communication, and only did so on my absolute faith in your personal character.

I enclose a dispatch for Gen. Wilson, in cipher, which, translated, simply advises him to keep his command well together, and to act according to the best of his ability, doing as little harm to the country as possible, until he knows hostilities are resumed.

I am with respect,

W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen. U. S. A.

GEN. WILSON'S GOOD SENSE TO GUIDE.

Headquarters Military Division of the Miss., in the field, Raleigh, April 23, 1865.—General Wilson: Cipher dispatch received. There is a general suspension of hostilities, awaiting the assent of our new President to certain civil points, before making a final military convention of peace. Act according to your own good sense, until you are certain the war is over. Keep possession of some key point that will secure your present advantages, rest your men and horses, and in a few days you will receive either positive information of peace, or may infer the contrary. My messages should be back from Washington to-morrow.

W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen.

MAJOR HITCHCOCK ARRIVED.

Headquarters, Mil. Div. of the Mississippi, in the field, Raleigh, N. C., April 23, 1865.—To Gen. J. E. Johnston, Commanding Confederate Army.—Major Hitchcock reports his arrival at Morehead City, with dispatches from Washington, and will be here in the morning. Please be ready to resume negotiations when the contents of dispatches are known. Respectfully,

W. T. SHERMAN, Major General Com'd'g.

THE BASIS DISAPPROVED.

War Department, Washington City, April 21, 1865.—General: The memorandum on basis agreed upon between Gen. Johnston and myself, submitted to the President, they are disapproved. You will give notice of their disapproval to General Sherman, and direct him to resume hostilities at the earliest moment.

The instructions given to you by the late President, Abraham Lincoln, on the 3d of March, by my telegraph of that date addressed to you, express substantially the views of President Andrew Johnson, and will be observed by Gen. Sherman. A copy is herewith appended.

The President desires that you proceed immediately to the headquarters of Gen. Sherman and direct operations against the enemy. Yours truly,

R. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

TO LIEUT. GEN. GRANT.

COPY OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S INSTRUCTIONS.

War Department, Washington City, March 3, 1865.—To Lieut. Gen. Grant: The President directs me to say to you that he wishes you to have no conference with Gen. Lee, unless it be for the capitulation of Gen. Lee's army, or on some minor and purely military matter. He wishes you to say that you are not to decide, discuss or confer upon any political question. Such questions the President holds in his own hands, and will submit them to no military conference or conventions. Meantime you are to press to your utmost your military advantages.

E. M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

THE TRUCE ENDED.

Headquarters Military Division of the Mississippi, in the field, Raleigh, N. C., April 24, 1865.—To Gen. Johnston, Commanding Confederate Army, Greensboro: You will take notice that the truce or suspension of hostilities agreed to between us will cease in forty-eight hours after this is received at your lines, under first of the articles of our agreement.

W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen.

Headquarters Military Division of the Mississippi, in the field, Raleigh, April 24, 1865.—To Gen. Johnston, Commanding Confederate Army: I have replies from Washington to your communications of April 18th. I am instructed to limit my operations to your immediate command, and not to attempt civil negotiations. I therefore demand the surrender of your army the same terms as was given to Gen. Lee at Appomattox, of April 9th, purely and simply.

W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen.

A MODIFICATION PROPOSED.

Headquarters Army of the Tenn., in the field, April 23, 1865.—Maj. Gen. Sherman: Your dispatch of yesterday received. I propose a modification of the terms you offered; such terms for my army as you wrote on the 18th; that they also be modified according to change of circumstances, and a further armistice to arrange details and meeting for that purpose.

J. E. JOHNSTON, Gen.

ANOTHER MEETING.

Headquarters, Mil. Div. of the Mississippi, in the field, Raleigh, April 25, 1865.—To Gen. Johnston: I will meet you at the same place as before, to-morrow at twelve o'clock, noon.

W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen.

STRAGGLERS FROM LEE'S ARMY.

Maj. Gen. W. T. Sherman, Commanding United States Forces.—General: I have had the honor to receive your dispatch of yesterday, summoning this army to surrender, on the terms accepted by Gen. Lee at Appomattox Court House. I propose instead of such surrender, terms based on those drawn up by you on the 18th for disbanding this army, and a further armistice and a conference to arrange these terms.

The disbanding of Gen. Lee's Army has afflicted this country with numerous bands having no means of subsistence but robbery, a knowledge of which would, I am sure, induce you to agree to the other conditions.

Most respectfully your obedient servant, J. E. JOHNSTON, Gen. C. S. A.

A QUESTION ABOUT THE ARMISTICE.

Greensboro, April 26, 1865.—2 a. m.—To Gen. Sherman, through Gen. Butler: I will meet you at the time and place you designated. Is armistice with status quo renewed?

J. E. JOHNSTON, Gen.

TERMS OF THE CONVENTION.

Terms of a military convention entered into on the 26th day of April, 1865, at Bennett's house, near Durham's Station, North Carolina, between Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, commanding the Confederate army, and Major Gen. W. T. Sherman, commanding the United States army in North Carolina:

All acts of war on the part of the troops under Gen. Johnston's command to cease from this date. All arms and public property to be deposited at Greensboro, and delivered to an ordinance officer of the United States army. Rolls of all the officers and men to be made in duplicate, one copy to be retained by the commander of the troops, and the other to be given to an officer designated by Gen. Sherman. Each officer and man to give his individual obligation in writing not to take up arms against the Government of the United States until properly released from this obligation. The side-arms of officers and their private horses and baggage to be retained by them.

This being done, all the officers and men will be permitted to return to their homes, not to be disturbed by the United States authorities so long as they observe their obligations and the laws in force where they may reside.

W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen. Com. U. S. forces in N. C.

J. E. JOHNSTON, Gen. Com. C. S. forces in N. C.

Approved: U. S. GRANT, Lieut. Gen. Raleigh, N. C., April 26, 1865.

SHERMAN'S ORDER.

Headquarters Military Division of the Mississippi, in the field, Raleigh, N. C., April 27, 1865.—Special Field Order No. 65.—The General commanding announces a further suspension of hostilities, and a final agreement with Gen. Johnston, which terminated the war as to the armies under his command and the country east of the Chattahoochee.

Copies of the terms of convention will be furnished Major Generals Schofield, Gilmore and Wilson, who are specially charged with the execution of its details in the Department of North Carolina, Department of the South, and at Macon and Western Georgia.

Gen. Myers, Ordnance Department, United States army, is hereby designated to receive the arms, &c., at Greensboro. Any commanding officer of a post may receive the arms of any detachment, and see that they are properly stored and accounted for.

Gen. Schofield will procure at once the necessary blanks, and supply the other necessary commanders, that uniformity may prevail, and great care must be taken that all the terms and stipulations on our part be fulfilled with the most scrupulous fidelity, while those imposed on our hitherto enemies be received in a spirit becoming a brave and generous army.

Army commanders may at once loan to the inhabitants such of the captured mules, horses, wagons and vehicles as can be spared from immediate use, and the commanding Generals of armies may issue provisions, animals, or any public property that can be spared, to relieve present wants, and to encourage the inhabitants to renew their peaceful pursuits, and to restore the relations of friendship among our fellow citizens and countrymen.

Foraging will forthwith cease, and when necessity or long marches compel the taking of private property, compensation will be made on the spot, or when the disbursing officers are not provided with funds, vouchers will be given in proper form, payable at the nearest military depot.

By order of Maj. Gen. W. T. Sherman, L. M. DAYTON, A. A. G.

DISPOSITION OF TROOPS.

Headquarters, Mil. Div. of the Mississippi, in the field, Raleigh, N. C., April 27, 1865.—General Field Order No. 66.—Hostilities having ceased, the following changes and dispositions of troops in the field will be made with as little delay as practicable:

I. The 10th and 23d corps will remain in the department of North Carolina, and Maj. Gen. J. M. Schofield will transfer back to Maj. Gen. Gilmore, commanding department of the South, the two brigades formerly belonging to the division of Brevet Major General Grover, at Savannah. The 3d division cavalry corps, Brevet Major General J. Kilpatrick commanding, is hereby transferred to the department of North Carolina, and General Kilpatrick will report in person to Major General Schofield for orders.

II. The cavalry command of Maj. Gen. Stoneman will return to East Tennessee, and that of Brevet Major General J. H. Wilson will be conducted back to the Tennessee river, in the neighborhood of Decatur, Ala.

III. Maj. Gen. Howard will conduct the army of the Tennessee to Richmond, Va., Lawrenceville and Petersburg, or to the right of that line. Maj. Gen. Slocum will conduct the army of Georgia to Richmond, by roads to the left of the one indicated for Gen. Howard, viz: by Oxford, Boydton and Nottaway Court House. These armies will turn in at this point the contents of their ordnance trains, and use the wagons for extra forage and provisions. These columns will be conducted slowly and in the best of order, and aim to be at Richmond ready to resume the march by the middle of May.

IV. The Chief Quartermaster and Commissary of the military division, Gen. Easton and Backwith, after making proper dispositions of their departments here, will proceed to Richmond and make suitable preparations to receive those columns, and to provide them for the further journey.

By order of Maj. Gen. W. T. Sherman, L. M. DAYTON, A. A. G.

CITY NOTICES.

COLLOQUY BETWEEN SEVERAL CITIZENS OF JANESVILLE.—1st CH.—I have just bought a new coat at Overton's Clothing Store, opposite the Hyatt House, and I must say that he now has a fine assortment of Spring and Summer goods on hand, and that he is selling them very cheap indeed.

2d CH.—I bought a fashionable hat there the other day, and I got it twenty-five per cent. below the usual rates.

3d CH.—Overton don't brag and boast that he will undersell all creation, and turn Rock River up stream; but he says he will sell at the lowest prices possible and sustain business.

4th CH.—But after all, his prices are lower than at any other store I can find; and his goods are of a good quality and fashionable styles. His clothes are SUPER-EXCELLENT.

5th CH.—He don't pretend to sell you "cheap" clothing, and tell you the goods are "all wool," when they are nothing but coarse satin; but he tells you truthfully just what the goods are, and I believe that he means to do business honestly, "on the square."

Citizens (All exclaim together).—That's so, that's so! and we recommend those wanting to buy CLOTHING, CLOTHS, HATS, CAPS, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, TAILOR'S TRIMMINGS, &c., to go to Overton's Store, opposite the Hyatt House, and purchase. no10w3r-my2018twon3w694

THE CULTIVATOR OF CORN.—The large amount of corn to be planted this season, renders it necessary for the producer to have some improved implement for its cultivation. To meet this demand, I am now building "The Badger State" gig corn planter.

After six months experimenting with different models, we have one which we are willing should be put to the test, and that it should stand or fall on its own merits. A lengthy description does not seem to be necessary. We will simply say that we are confident it will perform all that any cultivator will, and all that any farmer will require of it. It has six shovels, or four, as desired. The shovels are so arranged as to cultivate wide or narrow, shallow or deep; and they all have a very easy side motion. To say that they are made under the supervision of G. F. Lane, is a sufficient guarantee that they will be well made. In fact, they will be warranted in every respect.

The Badger State gig cultivator will be sold this season at $50 at the shop.

Call and see it at the shop one block south of the Hyatt House.

SEWING-MACHINES.—Of the many inventions and improvements of sewing-machines, none have so satisfactorily stood the test of time and service as Grover &amp; Baker's.

They have taken the highest premiums at the recent State Fairs of fifteen States; they have, moreover, received the warmest encomiums from all persons who have ever used the machines, and those who have had opportunities to compare the different styles of machines, generally prefer Grover & Baker's to any other. They do the work neatly and well, do not get out of order, and are readily adapted to any kind of sewing. We would advise our lady readers, who are in want of a sewing-machine, to call at Grover and Baker's.—Brooklyn Standard.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

The sale of the first series of $300,000,000 of the 7-30 Loan was completed on the 31st of March, 1885. The sale of the second series of Three Hundred Millions, payable three years from the 15th day of June, 1886, was begun on 1st of April. In the short space of thirty days, over One Hundred Millions of this series have been sold—leaving this day less than Two Hundred Millions to be disposed of. The interest is payable semi-annually in currency on the 15th of December and 15th of June by Coupons attached to each note, which are readily cashed anywhere. It amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note. Two cents " " " $100 " " " " $500 " " " " $1000 " " " " $5000 " " " " $10000 " " " " $50000

MORE AND MORE DESIRABLE.

The Rebellion is suppressed, and the Government has already adopted measures to reduce expenditures as far as possible to a peace footing, thus withdrawing from market as borrower and purchaser.

This is the ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and constitutes the GREAT POPULAR LOAN OF THE PEOPLE.

The Seven-Thirty Notes are convertible on their maturity, at the option of the holder, into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent. GOLD-BEARING BONDS

Which are always worth a premium

Free from Taxation.

The 7-30 Notes cannot be taxed by Towns, Cities, Counties or States, and the interest is not taxed unless on a surplus of the owner's income exceeding six hundred dollars a year. This fact increases their value from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate levied on other property.

SUBSCRIBE QUICKLY.

Less than $200,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within two months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans. It now seems probable that no considerable amount beyond the present series will be offered to the public.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the Loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Banks throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

A TWOOD'S PATENT DRILLING MACHINE,

AND PILE DRIVER.

HYDRAULIC SAND PUMP.

PRACTICAL TESTS having fully demonstrated the superiority of this machine over all others for the purpose of sinking Oil Wells, the undersigned is now prepared to receive orders for the same.

This machinery comprises everything requisite for the boring of oil wells, excepting the STEAM ENGINE AND CAST IRON DRIVING PIPE, (but will be furnished, if desired, at a reasonable price), and dispenses with the use of the Derrick Rig, Bull wheel and other cumbersome and expensive fixtures now in use, and is so arranged, being constructed on wheels and portable, that it can be easily removed for the purpose of sinking wells in different localities.

THE DETRITS is removed from the well by your Patent Hydraulic process, and does not require the removal of the drill from the boring. This process not only removes all the detritus in from 5 to 10 minutes, but likewise effectively cleans out and opens all the small oil veins that are so often entirely closed up by the old process of sand pumping.

WITH THIS MACHINE and a practical engineer a well can be sunk from 400 to 600 feet within a period of from 15 to 30 days, and the oil pipe has been driven Arrangements are being made for the construction and delivery of these machines at New York, Norwich, Newburg, N. Y., and Pittsburgh, Penn.

For further information, price, terms, &c., address SIMON LILLAND, METROPOLITAN HOTEL, New York.
